Fr James Fyfe writes,

Our parish Garden Party was the most successful yet and a great tribute to everyone who helped prepare for the big day and to all who came – in spite of the clouds and threat of rain! We had a record attendance and our hosts, Jean and Paul looked after us superlatively well – no-one left feeling hungry or thirsty! The sum raised for the parish was £1050.00 – an amazing amount – thanks to all of you who came!

On Friday 6th September Fr Gordon Adams will come to say a Requiem Mass for Gerald Fleming at 11.15am and go afterwards to Fenland Crematorium for 12.30. Unfortunately because of my leaving it has not been possible for me to officiate as I had hoped.

Magdalen Nwabuzi's funeral will be on 20th Sept 2019 at the Church of OUR LADY OF GRACE 145 Charlton Road SE7 7EZ at noon, followed by Burial in CHARLTON CEMETERY. CEMETERY LANE SE7 8DZ. VENUE at 2pm. There follows a Celebration of her Life in LEWISHAM VILLAGE UNIT 3 LEWISHAM RETAIL PARK SE13 7RZ from 17:00.

This week's leaflet will last for two weeks and will cover the period when I leave. I have asked Fr Gladstone Liddle if he will kindly cover the Masses at the end of the week before Fr Caulfield takes up residence at the weekend and he has agreed to do this. My last Sunday will be on September 1st and it is proposed that if people bring a plate of food to share there can be a parish gathering after the Sunday Mass to say farewell.
